BRISTOL'S BURGERS AND PORTICO SET TO OPEN AT DIPLOMAT LANDING
Howard Wein Hospitality launches Two New Restaurant Concepts This Summer

Hollywood, FL (June 20, 2016) – This summer, Howard Wein Hospitality \(HWH\) will debut two new restaurants located at Diplomat Landing overlooking the Intracoastal Waterway. Bristol's Burgers will feature ingredient-driven burgers served exclusively on house-baked sub rolls, boozy and non-boozy milkshakes made with homemade ice cream, and a full bar celebrating retro-inspired cocktails. Portico is a rustic outdoor beer and wine garden serving over 20 beers, wines and cocktails, all on tap, and a menu of light Italian fare.

Bristol's Burgers, now open, is a timeless burger joint with modern upgrades in food, drink and design. The unique oval-shaped burgers, created using a proprietary signature blend of beef, will be served on house-made sub rolls and accompanied by ingredient-driven toppings. The menu will highlight five signature burgers including the House Cheeseburger with melted cheddar, house-made pickles and Louis dressing, and the Porter Barbeque Burger with griddled onions, Monterey jack, and porter barbeque sauce. Other modern twists include a vegan quinoa burger, and the option to request a fresh-baked gluten-free roll for any burger.

Other highlights from the menu include a unique selection of "wedge" salads, sure-to-be-the-best-you've-ever-had chicken wings, the onion "brick" with grilled lemons and horseradish sauce and mini Chicago-style hot dogs served on the same house-baked buns.

The bar at Bristol's Burgers will include a wide selection of "retro" cocktails such as the Long Island Iced Tea and Planters Punch as well as Lemon Drop and Sex On The Beach shots, among others. Milkshakes include the very adult Southern Belle, a frosty blend of vanilla ice cream, caramel and bourbon, and the kid-friendly Lunch Box with vanilla ice cream, grape jelly and peanut butter cups.

Portico, opening June 28th, is a waterfront beer and wine garden serving sharable, light-Italian favorites with an exclusively on-tap beer and wine program. An assortment of small plates like Fried Green Beans, Roasted Cauliflower and Kale-Avocado Salad will be available alongside charcuterie and specialty cheese boards. Six signature pizzas including the Roasted Tomato and Mozzarella, the Arugula, Speck and Parmesan and the Bianca Gorgonzola round out the offerings.

The grazing style menu is designed to pair with any of the 20 tap beverages, all served in seven ounce glasses, encouraging the conviviality of sipping, tasting and plate swapping. Old and new world wines, local craft beers, beloved imports and even the house signature Americano cocktail, will all be available on tap. The Portico experience is well suited to its location just steps away from the Diplomat Landing Marina, where in addition to gazing at the resident yachts, guests can entertain themselves with outdoor games like ping pong, corn hole and ring toss.

Howard Wein of HWH, whose expertise in the culinary world brings knowledge and creativity to the projects, created each concept. Veteran mixologist and cocktail consultant for the hospitality group, Willy Shine, will lead beverage programs.

Bristol's Burgers and Portico mark the first step in what will be a dining and drinking evolution in Hollywood, Florida with each creative and culinary detail overseen by Wein and his group.

Bristol's Burgers and Portico are located at Diplomat Landing, 3250-3680 South Ocean Drive, Hollywood, FL 33019. Bristol's Burgers will be open 5pm – 11pm, Monday – Friday, and 12pm – 11pm, Saturday – Sunday. For more information, please call 954-602-8760, visit www.bristolsburgers.com, and follow Bristol's Burger on Instagram and Twitter. Portico will be open 5pm – 10pm, seven days a week.
